

Dr. Tony Bennett, State Superintendent for Public Instruction, stresses the importance of parents demonstrating a strong and ongoing commitment toward the academic development of their children.*

Please join us for Family Literacy Night

Maxwell Intermediate School
Monday, November 12, 2012
6:30 pm – 7:30 pm

- Learn how to help your child choose appropriate books for his/her reading level.
- See a demonstration on how you can view your child's Acuity scores and individual practice activities.
- Learn how you can help your child practice reading fluency at home in just a few minutes a day.
- See a display of the types of reading activities your child does on a daily basis.
- Participate with your child on reading/writing activities.
- Receive information on ISTEP and other state assessments.
- Learn how to question your child about what he/she is reading.
- View information on Indiana's adoption of Common Core State Standards and the impact on your child.

By attending this important evening event, you are making the pursuit of knowledge a priority in your household. Together, child and parent, in partnership with Indiana's educators, will make education our #1 priority – Source Indiana Department of Education