GYFL Player Code of Conduct

Youth Football plays a vital role in encouraging physical, social, emotional, and academic growth of its players. It is therefore essential for parents and guardians, coaches and officials, to encourage their youth football players to embrace the values of good sportsmanship, self-discipline, and character development.

- Have fun!
- Be a good sports (win or lose), be honest, fair and always show good sportsmanship to all coaches, players, officials and fans.
- Learn the value of commitment to the team.
- Put personal goals aside for the betterment of the team.
- Show courtesy and respect to teammates, opponents and coaches.
- Realize that athletic contests, including practice sessions are educational experiences and opportunities.
- Players will not engage in unsportsmanlike conduct.
- Players will not engage in rude behavior.
- I will treat everyone, including coaches, parents, players and officials with respect regardless of race, creed, color, nationality, or sex.
- I will conduct myself in Greenfield Schools in accordance to the school policy and procedures to the best of my abilities, being a leader, setting good examples, and representing GYFL in good standing.

Success in life is essential for success in athletics. To that end, GYFL is in partnership with Greenfield-Central School Corporation (GCSC) to ensure that all student-athletes meet the academic and behavioral expectations of GYFL and Greenfield-Central Schools as indicated by the GYFL Code of Conduct and each GCSC Schools respective student handbooks—GCJHS for academic eligibility (6th grade only); Greenfield Intermediate School and Maxwell Intermediate School for conduct, grades 4 through 6.

It is essential for the GYFL Commissioner to communicate with schools in order to uphold the high standards for the academics and conduct of Greenfield’s student-athletes. The signature on this document of a parent or guardian authorizes the mutual exchange of the student’s academics, conduct/behavior and disciplinary record between the GYFL Commissioner, Darryck Dorman, and members of the Greenfield-Central Community School Corporation school administrators.

I authorize the exchange of student academic and conduct information between Greenfield-Central Community School Corporation school administrators and the Greenfield Youth Football League Commission. This authorization is limited to school academics and conduct information for the student named below.
